NUMB. XIII.]

gen the Beaten Co

KEGAZE KE

S A T U R D A Y, NOVEMBER 22, 1788.

LEXINGTON: Printed by JOHN BRADFORD at his Oppics in Mair Street where Subscriptions, Advertisements, Esc. for this paper, are thankfully received, and Printing in its different branches done with Care and Expedition.

LONDON July 18.

T is confidently afferted, that fir Joseph Banks, lord Rawdon and some other noblemen and perfor a nawdon and forme other noblemen and per-tons of diffind on, have lately fet on for tascheme for exploring the interior parts of Africa, and that proper affiftants are immediately to embark for that purpole.

The annual profits arising from the African slave trade to Great Britain have been computed at $270,000. July 10 It is faild the dey of Algiers has declared war againft the empreis of Ruffin, and that a from fleet had lately failed from that port, muned with crews of desperate fellows. It is also faid that the evening before the armament weighed anchor, the dey fent for the chief d'Escaire; with the ret of the principal officers, when he promised a reward of 2000 fequins to the first that should bring and lay at his feet the head of the English rebei Paul-lores.

ward of 2000 lequins to the hift that hould bring and lay at his feet the head of the English rebel Paul-Jones.

Last montary Hagine Gazette contains the fentences of Meffleurs Van Werferveld, and I. H. Van Dyck, of Hutem and Elbours. One of the above is aborgomatic y they are both formulated for his as well as two ministes of the tople, a licence, as well as two ministes of the tople, a licence as well as two ministes of the tople, a licence as well as two ministes of the tople, a licence as well as two ministes of the tople, a licence as well as two ministes of the tople, a licence as well as two ministes of the tople, a licence as well as two ministes of the tople, a licence as well as two ministes of the tople, a licence as the fact of the fact of the same and the same as the facts of Generical and two interfaces of Generical and two ministes and the fact of the fac

To the Printer of the Kentucke Gazette.

When my mind is difensined from those pur-tuits, which necessarily call for our attenti-on, when freed from care or anxiety, I fubmit to the juperior impressions of Religion or Philosophy, I find such moments the happiest of any. It is then, Sir, I view the common employments of the as beneath the confinut draude of an intellec-tual Being my mind expands: Affection warms.— Develor activates me feet. Devotion captivates my foul, and the whole fy-

Devotion captivates my foul, and the whole fytion beats in unifon.

There is fome thing peculiar in this Western Country which gives truth to devour affections; and the second of the hot unworthy your notice, you may be rie to infert it - 1 that only rem anothly extracted from Mr. Thoughon it Sighus, where there is the vectoral red are too see the control of the vectoral of the vectoral

HESE as they change ALMIGHTY FATHER, thefe. A count the varying con the rolling year Is full of the rolling the full of the rolling that Is full of the rolling that Is full of the rolling that the rolling is baim, which the rolling are is baim, Echo the Worldings round all Nature imites, And every saje, and every heart is joy.

Then come thy Glory in the Summer Months, With light and neutrefulgent: then thy Sin, Shoots full perfection, the of the Ivelling Year; And of: the voice in dreadful thindler thesis, And of my Groces in helow whife ring Gales.

nes in Antumn unconfin'd on feast for all that live thy northern blaft.

To firm ye vocal gales
To firm ye vocal gales
To firm ye vocal gales
To first in your frethness breathes
To filtry Glooms.
The tucke's Clitts the Cedars wave

The analysis is officially claims. The second of the secon

The Thunder olds I am Behusht ye profitate World, Whill Cloud to Cloud returns the Johann Hynn: Elect of arich ye Hills, ye majly rocks, Recan the Jound the broad reposjive leve Yo Valler raise: In the Great sherherd reigns, And the toping ring Kingdom yet will come.

At once the head the heart and tongue of all Crown the great Hymn. Ye different fellaries. Who they had on one great errand lent, in wrives places meet, dill ring in part. Effentlis fill theyame; whether in coffly Sunnatuous Ediness, or lowly cors.
Or recisje in the Woodland's grangful flades, You make the forest echo to your Songs: Let all refound the great providers Phatset And as each jivelling found, increases each in one united ardor rise to Heaven.

For me should I forget the durling theme.
Whether the biojion blows, Sammers Sun
Ruflets the plains, aspining Antenn gleams,
Or Winer durlens in the Frached Enf:
Be my tongue mute, may farcy paint no more,
And dead to joy, forget my heart to beat.
Should fate command me to the fartheft verges.
Of the green earth; to ditant bathfrous climes,
To Rivers unknown to Song, where first the Sun
Gilds Africs Mountains, or his setting beams

Warms num rous Indian Tribes --- 'tis nought to me In Savage walks as thro' this feet he find And where HE vital preads there mut be Life.

When e'en at last the solemn hour shall come. Which wings my might fight to future Worlds, I chearful will obey: I cannot go Where the Nursell Love, not similes around: Sustaining all your Orbs and all then Suns, From Jenning evil, still adducing good, And better still, and better there again, In Infinite progression, but slice My less in him in Light Inepresse!

Come then expression for the his praise.

Friday the 25, was appointed by the inhabitants of this place as a day of public rejoicting for the happy progress of the NEW CONSISTUTION: but from the appearance of the weather on Thursday evening, the meeting was postponed until Monday last.

taft. The day was opened by an alarm gunthemorning being very week, and the weather continuing bad until tweive o'clock, attendance at church, which had been part of the plan, was necessarily omitted. As half past 12, a fignal was given for repairing to the place of rendezvous by a discharge from the artillar.

been part of the plan, was necejarily omitted. As half polf 12.2 a fignal was given for repairing to the place of rendezvous by a digharge from the artillery.

On the proceffion being formed, a fignal was given by a flow from the artillery, when the trumpers found det a march. — on their ceasing, the desime and spiel fireck up, they were releved by heathous.

On entering the town, the belt began to ring, and a number of gentlemn who had formed themselves into a band, gave an elegant march on violins and flutes.— On the artival of the procession at Each and the world of the procession of the wilders and solley by the infantry. The company then proceeded to the childe of a president and vice president, when Thomas Hartley, Eq.; was appointed president, and William Socie, Eq.; vice president, when Thomas Hartley, Eq.; was appointed president, and William Socie, Eq.; vice president, and William Socie, Eq.; vice president.

An Oration suitable to the accosion, was delivered by Mr. Charles W. Hartley.

Dimer was then fired up in the utmost order, Alter dinner the following teasts were given by the Fig. carriers of the respective trades and classes.

L. United States Flag. May our Prows explore every tinter of the habitable Globe.——Our Flag carriers of the respective trades and classes.

L. United States Flag. May our Prows explore every tinter of the habitable Globe.——Our Flag classes of the William Socie, and Impettable will be suited by the Sward of Var.

11. Flag of the State of Pennsylvania.—The State of Pennsylvania.—The State of Pennsylvania.—May so hold the Federal Balance and accome the Arbitres of the Continuent in the Balance and art found wanting."

11. Flag of the State of Pennsylvania.—The State of Pennsylvania.—May nothing the Rightenings turn the Beam, and may she write on Sophistry what convulsed Beitaspazzar, "Thou art weighed in the Balance and art found wanting."

12. Farmers Flag. Perpetual Laurels to the solution of the Federal Valle State of suared by the component parts of the Federal Valle Sta & Copperimiths and founders Flag ... May we be

A Coppermithe and founders Flag. May we be braced together by a love for our Country, as by borax and spetter, and rivered by an energetic Government.

A. Potters Flag. As often as the wheel of time revolves this day, let gratitude tell of the heroes who are proven as by five, and may a tear of remembrance fall for such as were cracked.

All. Rough Carpenters Flag. May his head be divarced from his body by the broad Ax of Fuscice, who does not square his conduit by the Rule of Richt.

of Right.

of Right.

XIII. House Carpenters Flag. The new Polisteal Manshom: may is sapartments be commodious.

May three rafters be added to the pen which already support its roof, and may its lights be great and many.

XIV. Blackfmiths Flag. May the thirteen States be welded into one united Empire, by the hanner of conciliation, on the Avvil of peace, and may the man who attempts to blow the coal of difcord be burnand of conciliation, on the Aivil of peace, and may see than who attempts to blow the coal of differed be burned by the parks.

XV. Mailors Flag. May our Government be well pointed and have a good head.

XVI. Painters Flag. The new Conflitution in the true colours neither cartained or flattered and may the bruft of inveltigation correct the glare of light given by fix friends, and the profusion of floade thrown on it by its centies.

XVII. Glaziers Flag. May the paine remain for ever uncreaked, that threw light on the jubylets of our late war, and may the rays of truth be drawn on a focus by the glass of Genius.

XVIII. Saddiers Flag. A Curb bit and a Traverse ein to the importation of foreign luxuries, and may the man who denies his encouragement to home manyadure, be firrespect or out at the world.

XIX. Hatters Flag. May he who twengs the low of sumult be firiped to the pelt, then dipped into a kettle of blacking, may his head be brought to the block and their Union constitute his character.

XX. Shoe and Boot makers Flag. May we wax a great and happy nation, be bound by principles of mutual regard, adlanded as by one Soul, and may our prosperity as a people left until the end of time.

XXI. Breechet makers and skinners Flag. May be be florn against the grain, smoked and votted who has not brains to know that the bands of the old our prosperity as a people last until the end of time.

XXI. Breeches makers and skinners Riag. May be be shorn against the grain, smoked and weited who has not brashs to know that the bands of the old Government were too loose.

XXII. Tobacconsist Riag. May the Leaver of aninfederalism be twissed together and fastened by shorns, or be rolled into tubes and end in a puss.

XXIII. Waggon Makers Riag. Three more jookes to our new wheel, a federal hand for its tire, a willing people for its axis, political wissom to extended by the Lock chain of opposition.

XXIV. Saddie-Tree-Makers Riag. As we are chips of the same block, branches from the same tree, may we be glued together by a general efficient Covernment.

XXV. Blue-dyers and Stampers Riag.—May same famp immortality on their names who have dyand for their country.

XXVI. Tanners and Curriers Riag.—May every limb of that man be backed.—May he be leathered who is mean enough to curry favor.

XXVI. Woover Riag.

shrough Society, and nave ms hise composery tunined who is mean enough to curry favor.

XXVII- Weavers Flag. For ever honored be the names of those who rejecting even the thrums of the old web, have cut it out of the loom, and have were another to clothe the political nakedness of their

XXVIII. Tinplate workers Flag. May the shears of liberality and extended policy cut away local pre-judices, and may the late hear of policicall diffui-ficion only ferve to melt the cement that is to folder

XXIX. Scythe and Sickle-makers Flag. fickle of industry be filled with heavy harvests until sime with his science shall move down Empires and ages. XXX. Buschhers Flag. As the marrow is con-

XXX. Butchhers Flag. At the marrow is conmediad with the bone, or one joint with another, fo let as be united, and may no cleave disjoin us.

XXXI. Gun Institution. When the implements of war are requisite to defend our country's rights, or refens her wrongs.—May cooling's take the fight and courage draw the trigger.

XXXII. Printers Flag. May no Government be so potent as to restrain the liberty of the Press, or so impotent as not to be able to check its Licentiousliness.

an jo impotent arnot to be dote to check its Licentisulfiels.

KXXIII. Brewers Flag. May he be chooked with the grains, or drowned in hat ale wnoje busihejs is to brew mijchief.

XXXIV. Barbers Flag. Hot curling irons and a duil razor to the enemies of our new jylem, and norwithly anding the wig they once took upon them, may they remain as they now are in the juds.

XXXV. Turners Flag. May the antient fedevalish be "turned from the evil of their ways," and be held no longer by the rice of groundless oppofiction.

XXXVI. Coopers Flag. May the new Covern-

AXAVI. Copper Flag. May the new Covernment prove a binding boop to the different flater, and never fuffer them to go to flaves.

XXXVII. Brick-maker: Flag. The materials which compole our new Confitution-May they jujit the the test of party rage without a crack, and come out more perfelt from the kiln of faction.

XXXVIII. Rope Maker's Flag. May the production of our reads be the neck-sich of him who attempts to unrivelf the political rope of our Union.

XXXIX, Mathematical infirmment Makers Flag. The political compaler—x, it has been graduated to XXXIX, Mathematical infrument blakers Viag. The political compafer—it is has been graduated by the finger of accuracy, may it prove our guide in the wilds of legiflation, and prejerve its equipoile, however fasken by the forms of foreign in aften or domeflic broil.

domiflic broil.

XL. Fehrers Flag. The unanimity which augurs that the hatches foul foon be buried.

XLI. Surveyors viag. May the needle of the new Government, be magnetized by an honel love of fame, and make the applauje of the people its pole, may the fights be taken by the prevailing eye of genius, the courses should be by integrity, and may there he warriston from national houre.

be no variation from national honor,

X.I.I. Merchants. The new constitution; may it prove 100 per cent, better than the old; may ju-Stice, mercy and wijdom be found in the invoicits excellencies and may its nett proceeds be gorder at home and respect in the councils of Eur whome and refped in the councils of Europe.

XLIII. Lawyers. A mild judge, a believing jury, a blundering opponent a good cause, a handlome fee, and a febreal client to every advocate of our in fant Constitution.

XLIV. Physicians. The political Physicians in place of mending have made a Constitution; may it retain its health and vigour without the aid of medicine, and may the quack undergo at the same time the double operation of cathartic and emetic who prescribes bleeding.

XLV. Infantry Company. May statements to the same tempos to the same.

who preferibes bleeding.

XI.V. Infantry Company. May the man who attempts to far the foundations of our new government have a mine fpring upon him, if he lights unhure from this, may he be drummed out of fociety to the tane of the roguest march. Each Toalf was aunounced by trumpets founding, and followed by a roll from the drums which was figual to the artillery under the command of capt. Johnson, and to the imfantry under the command of capt.

linflor, anaxy we seem, which were drank, a federal After the feveral toafts were drank, a federal ig composed by Mr. Eli Lewis, and fer to mustic Mr. Edward Tyter, was fung, accompanied by

At fix o'clock the drums and trumpets gave At fix o'clock the drams and trumpets gave no tee form pracession again—A gain was then fixed as a signal for murching. The precession returned to sown in the Jame order in which they went out, and ofter three cheers they distilled in high-street. The entertainment began and ended with the utmost between the strength amony, to which the attention and arrangements of the manager greatly contributed. The procession was splendid. The number of people presence and not have been less than 1500, with between forty and fifty signs interpressed, containing the pringal took and implements of each trade; these made a beautoful appearance, and discovered at once the head of ingenuity and the hand of a master. The exhibition textiansy exceeded any yet made in the head of ingenisty and the hand of a mafter. The exhibition certainly exceeded any yet made in the inland towns of the continent. Cheerfulnefs and good order were discovered throughout the company, and though the hanner of indufiry has for a white been julpended by the procession, it must cortainly assure the very honest man, to see so respectively active to every honest man, to see so respectively active to every honest ot testify their approbation of a government which is generally regarded bation of a government which is generated as the political jaivation of our country. ally regarded

ノが ノが ノが ノボ ノボス

From the INDEPENDENT GAZETTEER.

Philadelphia, Sept. 1.

A correspondent queries, Whether it would not be very advisable, in the prejent juniture of public of-fairs, in Congress, to get rid of all their back lands at fuch prices as they can obtain, while it is yet in their power?

That country, continues our correspondent, cannot from the nature of things, remainlong fubject to the old flates. Their insereft, remote fituation, and many other weighty and important condiderations, confort against it. If the navigation of the Mifflippi be celed by the States to Spain, this event will be facilitated. But an immediate fals of all the western lands, with discharge great part of the national debt, and slop an accumulating interest.—and the source the better.

If Congress were to devote some of their time to

If Congress were to devote some of their time to this important business, instead of wasting it infruit-less and trisling debates, where they are to meet, &c they would render their Country fome ferrice for they would render their Country some service for the expence they incur.

The moment they attempt to give up the trade of the Missifishi, the western Country, with all their territorial claims and pretensions, will be loss. The Court of London, through Lord Dorchester, will aid the new jettlements agains Old Spain— and the natives of South America, will unite with the Americans of Kentucke. Ludicrous as this may oppear, let it be remembered that Branger things have come to pass.

appear, tee to be remembered and a comp, Sec. may be faid Congress, by an army, Sec. may prevent this event. The premises cannot be admittable that they have now about 600 men - tilly paid and supplied. It would require an army of 20,000 menan expense that cannot be supported, and the object.

will not repay the expence 8080808080808080808080

TO BE LEASED

three lives at December Court in Fayette County.

A quantity of Land in one hundred acre Lotts which lays near Lexington be-ing the property of the Transylvana

*X EDUCATION

THE subscriber being appointed by the trustees of Salem the seminary of learning at Bairds Town, to superintend and conduct the education of fludents there, is defired toinform the Public that the Latin, Greek, and English Languages, with the leveral Arts and Sciences commonly studi-ed at Academics and Colleges in this comwill be taught from the twentiething by JAMES PRIESTLY. stant by

N. B. The price of enition will be £5. a year, 201 and the rest in castic and country produce in money, and the rest at money price. November 17, 1818

工作工作工作工作工作 Da BEATTY

PRESENTS his respectful compliments to those persons who have done him the honor to employ him in his professi onal line, and requests them to come in and fettie their accompts as he intende to leave the Ditrict the last of this month. Lexington November 14th 1788.

NOTICE

IS hereby given the field Officers and Captains of Fayette county, to at the court house in Lexengton, on the first monday in December next at nine of clock in the morning to finish the business of the court of enquiry. The delinquents are also notified to attend
November 14, 1788, R.PATTERSON P.C.E.

November 14, 1783. R.PATTERSON P.C.E.

* The Private hereof gratefully returns his fincers thanks to thole gentlemen who gave incouragement to his publishing a newspaper in this district. He hash value it his fludy to render the same an useful and entertaining, as his situation and the nature thereof would admit; but as a work of this kind not only requires the most puntual payments but a far greater number of subscribers to enable him to procure his necessary supplier, and supporting necessary suppliers and supporting necessary suppliers as have paid no part of their subscriptions either for the past or present year, that if they do not intend immediately to settle up their respective balances, to give him notice thereof as it will be imposed by the suppliers of the past or present year, that if they do not intend immediately to settle up their respective balances, to give him notice thereof as it will be imposed to the past of the past of

ALEXANDER AND JAMES PARKER Will open a large and general Ajjortment of Merchandize, at their Store in Lexington in about